Prayer 1 (ch 25)

The main gist of this prayer is to pray in the name of the Father and Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. It is an interesting thing that the great commission speaks of a single name for three persons. When we pray in the name of Jesus at the end of our prayers, we are stamping this prayer with Jesus' name! As in - Jesus' character, life, and person is stamped on your prayer! This is a big deal! If you pray in an ungodly way or lift up a prayer that is ungodly or unworthy, I don't think it is good to pray in the name of Jesus. Yes, Jesus understands, but I want to say that the name is holy and that we need to respect it and it has special power. When someone says like Peter, "In the name of Jesus, get up and walk!" It has special authority and has the stamp of Jesus - the perfect, amazing God. When you say something and pray something and really mean the name of Jesus (not just say bluntly, "in the name of Jesus,"), there is power in the name of Jesus.

Jesus' name has power. It can make a deaf person hear, and make a mountain move. Use it only for important occasions when you really need it! Now, I believe we can use it in a not so important manner, but this is the lesser usage of the name. But when you really need something, and something big has to change, call upon the name of the Lord, and with full faith command the mountain to move! I need to do this more often.

Prayer 2 (ch 26)

Lord, teach me to pray wholeheartedly and without failing. I need to pray every second of my life. I need to pray even when I'm doing random things or even studying prayer. I don't pray enough! I need to pray when walking on the streets especially because there is a lot of danger and a lot of activity that happens when I walk. I need to pray when I am in my room to prevent myself from being tempted. I need to pray in the beginning of the day to set the tone and rest of the day. I need to pray always. Lord, help me to pray more. Lord, thank you for always being there for me, and help me to pray.

Prayer 3 (ch 27)

One of my favorite parts of this prayer is the part where it says, “May I come with more liberty to you.” The significance of this part of the prayer is that we are to feel free and comfortable around Jesus. Yes, Jesus is Lord. Yes, Jesus is God Almighty. But, we should feel free to present our requests - every, every, every single one of our tiny requests. We should tell the Lord exactly how we feel and every single thought we have. We should not keep anything hidden thinking, “Oh, this is too small. Or, oh, this is too shameful. Or oh, the Lord doesn’t care about this kind of thing - he doesn’t have time for this. Or, Lord, I’m not going to pray about it even though it’s on my mind for Reason A, B, or C.” We should ALWAYS pray to Jesus about EVERYTHING. Don’t hide ANYTHING. Help me Lord, to always pray and to pray about everything to the Lord Jesus, and be free and full of liberty and love. He accepts anything and everything.

Prayer 4 (ch 28)

Dear Lord, as the prayer says, teach me to understand the power of the intercession! You are praying for me, and this prayer is very powerful. Your prayer for me is sustaining me. I also need to pray, and my prayer is powerful too. I need to understand that prayer is powerful and it is not something I can put aside - I must always pray - unceasingly. This means that prayer can be in thoughts, in feelings, in emotions, and there are hundreds of prayers every second. Thus, praying in tongues is not so odd. I must pray always, and I must understand that prayer is powerful. Sometimes, I have a Jesus complex, but I have to understand I am not all-powerful and I depend on God. Thus, I must do the right thing and be sanctified.

Prayer 5 (ch 29)

The topic of this chapter is Gethsemane. It is truly the core of this life when we look at suffering. The happiness, and joy, is fluff in some sense because they can be done by any weak person. But the true nature of our reality may be suffering. Of course, joy and love is even stronger than suffering, but one of the characteristics of this life is suffering. And we must overcome suffering. We must overcome suffering with love and with power and with godliness. I think about marriage - whether I should marry. And the real issue is: will it bring me joy or suffering? Is the suffering worth it? And I don't know the answer, but I understand that since reality is suffering, we must be sober minded.

Prayer 6 (ch 30)

The topic of this prayer is God's will and his desire for us to be in his will and enjoy his presence and himself. It is truly a joy to do the will of God because it always leads to good. Yes, we may enjoy sin, but it will always lead to death. Because we are not perfect, we compromise and sin. We cannot not sin. Lord, I cannot be perfect, but help me to repent and do my best. Thank you, Lord. I'm not going to ask you to make me sinless in this life - I am going to simply thank you for what you have done and for me to be in your will and for me to enjoy your presence.
