Ch31 and George Secret of Power Prayer

Prayer 1 (ch 31)

The concept of a priest is a powerful thing. It is a person who is set apart for God and is the intermediary between God and man. In fact, Jesus is a priest, and we are priests. I crazy to think about how we are one with Christ and our relationship with Christ. If Christ is in me, am I Christ? If Christ is in me and I say, "I am Christ," is Christ the one saying it? Who am I? And what does it mean for me to be a royal priest according to Peter. I loved this chapter. It talked about how we are an intermediary between the world and the people of God and God. Priests are not worldly. They are heavenly and godly and set apart and holy. They commune with God, and come out and commune with only the Christians or the people of God, and then they go back and forth. They do not try to make money or sell pigeons. These priests are special. Thus, some of the most important things in this life is to trust God for our future, and serve God alone and not man, instead of trying to make money in a a worldly way. Remember your dignity and that you are different and dignified - you are priests!

George Muller

The biggest takeaway from the George Muller section is that God is the person who is real in this world, and thus, we can trust him and He will answer our prayers and provide for us. We do not need to seek for money or for resources outside the kingdom of God. Yes, we need to be in the world, but not of the world. We need to deal with non-Christians all the time, and we need to love them, but Satan and the world are not our master. We will be broken to our knees with absolutely nothing, and finally when we are humbled like Job, like Job, we will be restored with wealth and providence and a ministry. It's a wonderful thing to see a man like George Muller, and he became incredibly wealthy successful even in the eyes of the world and a historical person - all through the power of prayer, and prayer alone.
