Course Description

Description Statement: This course explores the leader's commitment to the personal application of the Word to life. It also develops the meaning and practice of prayer and how faithful adherence to these specific callings assists a Christian leader in offering spiritual direction to the people of God.

Rationale: The purpose of this class is to enable each student to understand the development of his/her prayer life and to move on to a ministry of prayer consistent with the Word of God. By seeking to understand one's prayer life the student will not only deepen himself/herself but will be given the tools to lead others at different levels of spiritual maturity.

Canvas Interaction Requirements

Student Interaction Requirements:

Student interaction is an integral part of the Online/Distance Education learning experience. Successful completion of this course requires that students log into the course via the Canvas Learning Management System. Regular and substantive interaction with both the instructor and classmates is required throughout the quarter. Academic exercises will be listed on the course syllabus and include, but are not limited to, reading textbooks and journal articles, watching videos, listening to audio, PowerPoint/PDF slides, discussion postings, quizzes, examinations, reflection and/or research papers, written assignments, field work, and practicums. Regular and timely participation in is expected in all courses at Faith.

Faculty Interaction Requirements:

The professor will provide student(s) with specific details relevant to assigned coursework. He/she will submit student feedback via Canvas within a reasonable timeframe. Each professor is committed to engaging with student(s) in a manner that is courteous, professional, and consistent with Christian character (Gal. 5:22–23, 6:1–2; John 13:34–35, and so on).

Substantive Interaction Statement:

A student may be withdrawn for cause by either the instructor or the Registrar. A student who does not participate regularly and substantively, and/or whose number of absences prevents him/her from meeting the objectives of the course, will be withdrawn for failure to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (as defined in the Academic Catalog). Students who do not check-in to a course and interact substantively within the first two weeks of a quarter are subject to Administrative Withdrawal (WX) as defined in the Academic Catalog.

Course Requirements

Submit all coursework through Canvas in each assignment's drop box or through the Canvas "Inbox." Do not send your assignments anywhere else, as there is no guarantee they will be received by the proper instructor on time.

Due Dates: Pay attention to assignment due dates throughout the quarter and submit/upload papers via Canvas as you complete them.

Late Papers: One letter grade will be deducted for each week of late submission. (The due date for weekly assignments is by midnight on Saturday.)

Extensions: Requests for course extensions must be paid for prior to the last day of the quarter. (This option is only available for the last two projects in the course.)

Paper Title
(Triple-space)
Student's Name
(Triple-space)
Number and Title of the Course
(Single-space)
Professor's Name
Date

Formatting Instructions: Paper layout and formatting must be in full compliance with Turabian style guidelines including double-space, Times New Roman 12 font (10 font for footnotes). Uploaded documents in Module One provide the guidelines for citations and footnotes. I recommend you procure the following: Word for Dummies or Office 365, and A Manual for Writers, 9th edition (Kate Turabian).

A. Student Introduction 5 points Due: End of Week One
Please write 2 paragraphs introducing yourself. In the first paragraph please share a little bit about yourself (hobbies, family, ministry, etc.). In the second paragraph please answer the following questions about your prayer life: what verse(s) the Holy Spirit has been bringing to your attention in this season of your life, what is the best way you connect to the Lord in prayer, and how would you like to improve the discipline of prayer in your life.

B. Prayer Logs 20 points Due: End of Each week
Take three (3) 30-minute blocks of time throughout the week to practice prayer in solitude. This is separate assignment from daily journal entries. This time is devoted to creating space to hear the voice of God. Keep your journal close by in case you would like to write some things down. This exercise is geared towards building a greater awareness of God's voice and practice the discipline of solitude. At the end of the week mark the assignment if you completed 90 minutes.

C. Prayer Journals 30 points Due: End of Week One - Six
This prayer journal is the record of your spiritual pilgrimage. It will require reading and interacting with the book by Andrew Murry "With Christ in the School of Prayer". Each day (Monday -Saturday) read one of the assigned chapters, meditate on the verse discussed in that chapter, and pray in agreement with the author's prayer with additional personal requests. Pray how the Holy Spirit leads you. Record your insight from each prayer in a short paragraph in a weekly journal and submit it by the assigned due date. This paper should have a paper heading and formatted according to the Turabian Style guidelines, 3-page long.

D. Prayer and Fasting Discussion                      5 points                      Due: End of Week Seven

This is a 2-part discussion assignment. Please read Isaiah 58, watch the video provided in the module, and share your thought and insights. Take some time to fast and seek the Lord. Share how your fast went and any impressions you received from the Lord.

E. ZOOM Prayers                                              10 points                      Due: Week Three and Eight

During ZOOM calls students and the professor will have a one-hour prayer. This prayer will be geared toward practicing Scripture prayer on assigned Bible verses. 10 minutes of that prayer time will be applied to praying for each other.

F. E. M. Bounds Overview Paper                      20 points                      Due: End of Week Nine

Write at least a one-page response for each of the eight books. A short summary of what the book is about to show your comprehension of material and one or two paragraphs of what you have learned or what stood out to you from your interaction with the text. Support your viewpoints with biblical references. Follow Turabian guidelines for writing and paper format, 10-pages long.

G. Intercessor Synopsis Paper                      10 points                      Due: End of Week Ten

Write a one-page overview of Intercessor textbook and one-page personal reflection of how it inspired you to pray differently. Follow Turabian Style guidelines, 2-pages long.

Grading Policies

1. Each student has the ten-week term time period to complete all course requirements. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor if the student is unable to complete the course requirements within the ten-week period.
2. Dr. Moldagulova, as the Professor of Record, grades at a ratio of one percentage point per five format and style errors to a maximum deduction of 15% on a given assignment. The remaining 85% is the total possible percentage for content on a given assignment. This results in a grading format of 85% content and 15% format and style to equal 100% for an assignment.

3. Late Submission Policy: If the student will be late beyond the designated submission time noted in the syllabus, the student must communicate the Professor of Record to request any possible additional time for submission of the assignment. This is done in CANVAS E-MAIL. This is by exception and should not become a norm. It is up to the Professor of Record to approve the late work in advance. (In the event of a Canvas malfunction, use galiya@faithiu.edu to communicate regarding coursework).

All late work must be coordinated with Dr. Moldagulova.

Course Extension Policy: The FIU & FS Course Extension Policy allows only work from Weeks 9 and 10 to be considered for grading. After 11:59 p.m. on the Friday after the closing of a quarter, all work will receive a zero. Only under very rare circumstances might a grade of incomplete be issued due to extremely severe extenuating circumstances that have been approved by the Professor of Record.

End of Course Evaluation

Completing the End of Course Evaluation is a required element in each course. Students need to complete the evaluation in Populi prior to their grades being visible at the end of each quarter. Once the End of Course Evaluation has been completed and your professor has finalized the course, your grade will be visible within Populi. The evaluation is available during week Eight.

Faith Policy Regarding Academic Integrity

Academic Code of Honor:

Christian character and academic honesty are foundational to the mission of Faith International University & Seminary. Students are expected to demonstrate integrity and honor utilizing any mode of instruction and recognize the importance of being accountable for personal academic behavior.

Students have the responsibility to be knowledgeable of and abide by the Academic Code of Honor and encourage honesty and integrity among fellow students. Students are required to conduct themselves in a Christ-like manner both behaviorally and ethically during the entire process of their education or be subject to disciplinary action. A non-exhaustive list of behavioral and ethical standards is offered below.

Behavioral Standards:

1. Students will attend all class sessions, arrive on time, and remain until dismissed.
2. Students will be respectful, courteous, and civil when communicating verbally or in writing with their instructor, fellow students, other faculty members, or administrative staff.
3. Students will be prepared for class and maintain an appropriate academic climate by refraining from all actions that disrupt the learning environment.
4. Students will do assigned coursework in a consistent, timely manner throughout the quarter.
5. Students will pay tuition, fees, and other charges according to financial policies.

Ethical Standards:

1. Students will submit their own course work.
2. Students will not cheat by utilizing unauthorized communication of information or give illicit aid to other students on examinations, papers, or projects.
3. Students will not plagiarize by representing someone else's words or ideas from articles, electronic sources (Internet), Bible software, etc., as one's own without proper citation.
4. Students will not falsify, distort, or invent any information, data, or citation.
5. Students will not submit the same work to more than one class or submit any work that has been used to fulfill the requirements of another course previously taken at another school.

Faith Mission Statement

Faith International University and Seminary (FIUS) exists to glorify God by equipping Christian leaders with a biblical, theological, and practical education empowering them to apply and proclaim the inerrant Word of God for worldwide Christian service.

Accessibility and Consent Agreement

Disability and Support Services (DSS):

If you are a student with a disability and want to discuss or request services, please contact the Disability Support Services (DSS) office. Accommodations for qualified students are handled through this office. The Coordinator for DSS can be reached at (253) 752-2020 x120.

Consent Agreement:

An on-line/distance learning course requires frequent interaction with your instructor. It is, therefore, essential that you agree to the conditions set forth in the course syllabus. After you have read the course syllabus, let us know (do not wait) if you do not agree with the course conditions and requirements. If we do not hear from you within three (3) days from the start of the course, we will assume you agree with the conditions set forth in the syllabus.

Academic Work Quality

Faith International University and Seminary (FIUS) strives to bring its students quality instruction in order to challenge students to their highest levels of performance. Students are exposed to high quality textbooks, journals, and other scholarly media as part of required coursework. Likewise, students are expected to focus on high-quality academic sources and writing. A hierarchy of scholarly research books and journals exists from which acceptable research reading and citation sources may be obtained.

Excellent book and journal resources, as well as reference books are accessible at FIUS and other libraries. Additionally, many important and classic works may be found online and in Bible and research software packages. The Internet is mixed in terms of the quality of research resources to be found, however good sources are available if students search carefully.

Impeccable citation of sources is expected, and students should limit direct quotations to a maximum of thirty percent of the paper or presentation. The following graphic shows the general “Hierarchy of Sources” for research and study:
