Course Description

Theology 3 is part of a theology series required in master's degree programs at FIU. The goal of this course is to teach students to understand the underlying nature of and sources of theology relating to man, sin, and salvation. Theology 3 provides an overview of the basic methodology and development of systematic theology with an emphasis on historic Christianity. A study of the doctrine of angels, humans, and salvation as revealed in Scripture and discussed in the historic creeds of the Church with attention given to spiritual beings, the imago Dei, the fall, and the grace of God.

Canvas Interaction Requirements

Student interaction is an integral part of the Online/Distance Education learning experience. Successful completion of this course requires that students log into the course via the Canvas Learning Management System. Regular and substantive interaction with both the instructor and classmates is required throughout the quarter. Academic exercises will be listed on the course syllabus and include, but are not limited to, reading textbooks and journal articles, watching videos, listening to audio, PowerPoint/PDF slides, discussion postings, quizzes, examinations, reflection and/or research papers, written assignments, field work, and practicums. Regular and timely participation is expected in all courses at Faith. Students must submit coursework no more than two weeks ahead or behind the module week for that assignment.

Faculty Interaction Requirements:

The professor will provide student(s) with specific details relevant to assigned coursework. He/she will submit student feedback via Canvas within a reasonable timeframe. Each professor is committed to engaging with student(s) in a manner that is courteous, professional and consistent with Christian character (Gal. 5:22–23, 6:1–2; John 13:34–35, and so on).

Substantive Interaction Statement:

A student may be withdrawn for cause by either the instructor or the Registrar. A student who does not participate regularly and substantively, and/or whose number of absences prevents him/her from meeting the objectives of the course, will be withdrawn for failure to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (as defined in the Academic Catalog). Students who do not check-in to a course and interact substantively within the first two weeks of a quarter are subject to Administrative Withdrawal (WX) as defined in the Academic Catalog.

Course Goals / Student Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify major terms and concepts related to systematic theology.
2. Identify epistemological terms and concepts, that provide the foundation for theological studies such as truth, knowledge, belief, proposition, truth claims, subjective, objective, rational, irrational, valid, invalid, experience, evidence, logic.
3. Identify and distinguish important theological categories and elements of systematic theology.
4. Present carefully reasoned, clear, and concise written responses to course evaluator's regular Discussion board posts. As topics are posted, students will respond with brief essay-style answers (normally less than 200 words). Students may also post on class-related theology topics.
5. Conduct scholarly research on a specific Prolegomena or Bibliography topic: locate and critique a minimum of five to seven scholarly sources; write a minimum 2000-word research paper according to the "Essay and Research Paper Style Guide," which follows the Chicago Manual of Style (CMOS) format.

Course Requirements

All coursework will be submitted through Canvas in each assignment's drop box or through the Canvas "Inbox." Do not send your assignments anywhere else, as there is no guarantee that they will be received by the proper instructor at the proper time.

A. Reading, Lectures, and PowerPoints 20% Modules 1 to 5

Students will be required to participate in discussions as assigned by the instructor. These interactions will require a mid-week response to allow time for both instructor-to-student and student-to-student(s) engagement. Students' initial discussion posts are minimally 150–200 words; student-student(s) responses 100–150 words .

B. Discussion Posts 20% Modules 0, 1, 3, 5, 6

Students will be required to participate in discussions as assigned by the instructor. These interactions will require a mid-week response to allow time for both instructor-to-student and student-to-student(s) engagement. Students' initial discussion posts are minimally 150–200 words; student-student(s) responses 100–150 words .

C. Quizzes and Exams 30% Modules 0, 1, 2, 3, 4

Short chapter quizzes are aimed at providing formative feedback to both students and teacher. The final exam serves as a summary evaluation at the end of the course. Quizzes and exams will include multiple-choice, true-or-false, and occasional short answer and essays.

D. Research Paper 30% Module 60

The student will write a 2500-word term paper as the final writing assignment for this course from among the topic choices listed under "Research Paper" Assignment. The paper is subject to the formatting and writing requirements found in the Essay and Research Paper Style Guide, a PDF booklet offered with the downloadable class materials under the "Info" tab in Populi, or on the Modules page of this course in Canvas.

Grading Policies

Each student has the ten-week term time period to complete all course requirements. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor if the student is unable to complete the course requirements within the ten-week period.

End of Course Evaluation

Completing the End of course Evaluation is a required element in each course. Students need to complete the evaluation in Populi prior to their grades being visible at the end of each quarter. Once the End of Course Evaluation has been completed and your professor has finalized the course, your grade will be visible within Populi. The evaluation is available during week 8.

Faith Policy/Academic Integrity

Academic Code of Honor:

Christian character and academic honesty are foundational to the mission of Faith International University. Students are expected to demonstrate integrity and honor utilizing any mode of instruction and recognize the importance of being accountable for personal academic behavior.

Students have the responsibility to be knowledgeable of and abide by the Academic Code of Honor and encourage honesty and integrity among fellow students. Students are required to conduct themselves in a Christ-like manner both behaviorally and ethically during the entire process of their education or be subject to disciplinary action. A non-exhaustive list of behavioral and ethical standards is offered below.

Behavioral Standards:

1. Students will attend all class sessions, arrive on time, and remain until dismissed.
2. Students will be respectful, courteous, and civil when communicating verbally or in writing with their instructor, fellow students, other faculty members, or administrative staff.
3. Students will be prepared for class and maintain an appropriate academic climate by refraining from all actions that disrupt the learning environment.
4. Students will do assigned coursework in a consistent, timely manner throughout the quarter.
5. Students will pay tuition, fees, and other charges according to financial policies.

Ethical Standards:

1. Students will submit their own course work.
2. Students will not cheat by utilizing unauthorized communication of information or give illicit aid to other students on examinations, papers, or projects.
3. Students will not plagiarize by representing someone else's words or ideas from books, articles, electronic sources (Internet), Bible software, etc., as one's own without proper citation.
4. Students will not falsify, distort, or invent any information, data, or citation.
5. Students will not submit the same work to more than one class or submit any work that has been used to fulfill the requirements of another course previously taken at another school.

Faith International University Mission Statement

Faith International University exists to glorify God by equipping Christian leaders with a biblical, theological, and practical education empowering them to apply and proclaim the inerrant Word of God for worldwide Christian service.

Accessibility & Consent Agreement

Disability and Support Services (DSS):

If you are a student with a disability and want to discuss or request services, please contact the Disability Support Services (DSS) office. Accommodations for qualified students are handled through this office. The Coordinator for DSS can be reached at (253) 752-2020 x120.

Consent Agreement

An on-line/distance learning course requires frequent interaction with your instructor. It is, therefore, essential that you agree to the conditions set forth in the course syllabus. After you have read the course syllabus, let us know (do not wait) if you do not agree with the course conditions and requirements. If we do not hear from you within three (3) days from the start of the course, we will assume you agree with the conditions set forth in the syllabus.

Academic Work Quality

Faith International University strives to bring its students quality instruction in order to challenge students to their highest levels of performance. Students are exposed to high- quality textbooks, journals, and other scholarly media as part of required coursework.

Likewise, students are expected to focus on high-quality academic sources in their own coursework and research when writing and submitting papers, theses, or presenting similar assignments and projects. A hierarchy of scholarly research books and journals exists from which acceptable research reading and citation sources may be obtained.

Excellent book and journal resources, as well as reference books are found in the FECS and other libraries. Additionally, many important and classic works may be found online and in Bible and research software packages. The Internet is mixed in the quality of research resources to be found, however good sources are available if students looks carefully.

Impeccable citation of sources is expected, and students should limit direct quotations to a maximum of thirty percent of the paper or presentation. The following is a general “Hierarchy of Sources” for research and study:
